

5-404 Disciplinary Files and Records

A. Holds on Records

The Dean of Students' office may place a hold on a student's academic and other institutional records should the student refuse to respond to, or comply with, the procedures or sanctions imposed in accordance with these rules.

B. Student Disciplinary Records

1. DISCIPLINARY RECORDS WILL BE MAINTAINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH A UNIVERSITY'S RETENTION POLICIES. ~~Disciplinary records of students found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct shall be retained for five (5) years from the semester of the determination or until graduation, whichever occurs first.~~
2. Disciplinary records may be retained for a longer period, or permanently, if so specified in the sanctions applied. ~~Disciplinary records designated as permanent shall not be voided without unusual and compelling justification.~~
